Point of Interest– Easter egg hunts

Easter egg hunts are very popular in France. Some towns and villages organise Easter egg hunts in the local park and you can find details from the local mairie. Easter egg hunts in the back garden are also popular with young children. Tradition has it that the Easter eggs are dropped into the garden by the bells as they fly past on their return from Rome to their churches, not the Easter bunny. These eggs used to be decorated hard-boiled eggs, but now they tend to be small chocolate eggs.
