

RE Autumn 2

Year 5 – What does it mean to be a Muslim in Britain today?

Key vocabulary to remember and use in your learning

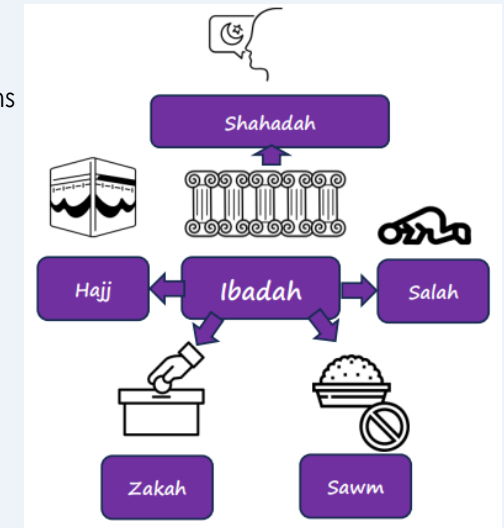

Word	Definition
Muslim	A follower of the religion of Islam
Ibadah	The word for worship in Arabic
Submission	Accepting a superior force and doing what they want
Ramadan	The month in the Muslim calendar when those who can fast do so
Shahadah	The basic statement of belief for Muslims, the First of the Five Pillars
Salah	Compulsory daily prayer for Muslims, the second of the Five Pillars
Zakah	Compulsory giving of charity every year, the fourth of the Five Pillars
Hajj	The Pilgrimage to Mecca during the month of Dhul Hajj

The Five Pillars of Islam

The Five Pillars of Islam are five duties that Muslims try to carry out. It helps them to feel like a part of the Muslim community. Each Pillar has a different name; Shahada, Salah, Zakat, Sawm and Hajj.

Pilgrimage

A journey taken for religious reason—one of the Five Pillars of Islam.

Key knowledge to know and use

- Approximately 24% of the world's population would call themselves a Muslim and approximately 7% of the population of England and Wales would do so as well.
- Many Muslims will perform five activities that show they worship Allah, this is known as Ibadah or worship. These five activities are known as the Five Pillars of Islam .
- For 28 days every year those Muslims who are able to will fast during the month of Ramadan and this fasting is known as Sawm, the third of the Five Pillars.