

Abbey Lane Reading Ambassador Newsletter

In this addition of our newsletter we are celebrating World Book Day. Our Reading Ambassadors have reviewed some recommended reads

Herbie's Recommendation

The Roman Mysteries Series by Caroline Lawrence

The Thieves of Ostia is the first book in the series. It is set back in ancient roman times and is based around the town of Ostia. The book is all about mystery and adventure. I recommend this book because it is exciting and action-packed. It is the perfect book for children who look fiction history.

Alex's Recommendation

Guinness World Records 2025

This book is a good book as it has lots of amazing records about facts, sports, exploring, science, nature, humankind and even a section all about KIDS!!!

I encourage you to read this book and other world record books and maybe even make your own world record at home or in school. And, of course, visit the school library.

Florrie's Recommendation

Harry Potter: 7 by JK Rowling

I recommend the adventure book Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows by JK Rowling. It's about Harry waiting at Privet Drive for the Order of the Phoenix to escort him safely without Voldemort and his followers knowing. Plus, he has to fulfil seemingly impossible tasks that Professor Dumbledore left him.

I liked this book because it was thrilling and adventurous. I would recommend this book to ages 7-15 years old. It is a very good book that is very unique.

Will's Recommendation

Diary of a Wimpy Kid by Jeff Kinney

I would recommend this book because of its incredible humour. It also lets you know what it would be like to be a middle age kid in secondary school in America.

Elodie's Recommendation

The Bolds by Julian Clary

This book is about a family of hyenas pretending to be humans because they have always wanted to have a human life and that day arrived... I recommend this book because it is very funny, I really like the characters. It was fun to read about animals pretending to be human.

Lyra's Recommendation

Wizards of Once by Cressida Cowell

I like the character Wish because I like the adventures. Also, Wish is a warrior princess but she has a magic eye so she sneaks out and has an adventure. I also like her because I like the magic.
