

RE Autumn

Year 6 – Holy texts

Key vocabulary to remember and use in your learning

Word	Definition
Tanakh	A term referring to the whole Hebrew Bible.
Testaments	How the Bible is divided.
Hebrew	Descendants from Jacob; their scriptures and traditions form the basis of the Jewish faith.
revelation	The act of revealing the divine
sacred	Being connected with God or dedication to a religious purpose.
Arabic	The language which the Quran is written in.
scriptures	The sacred writings of Christianity contained in the Bible.
Sunnah	Arabic word meaning 'tradition' or 'way'.
hadith	A collection of traditions containing the sayings of the prophet Muhammad.

The prophet Muhammed

The prophet Muhammed was a merchant born in Mecca. He was respected as he was a wise and fair business man. Muslims believe that he was chosen by Allah to be his prophet (inspiring teacher of the will of God/Allah) as he was kind and fair, also because he was concerned for the people.

Jacob

Jacob is known as a leader of Islam. He is recognised as an ancestor through which many prophets and saints came including Moses and Muhammed.

Key knowledge to know and use

- Many different communities use religious texts as sources of wisdom.
- The Ten Commandments (Judaism) and the Five Precepts (Buddhism) can help to teach people about what is right and wrong.
- The Torah is the five books of Moses, it was written in Hebrew over 3000 years ago.
- Holy texts can teach us different things about God, the world and human