

RE Summer

Year 1 –Religious artefacts

Key vocabulary to remember and use in your learn-

Word	Definition
prayer mat	A special mat used when prayer beads	Special beads used during prayer by Muslims.
rehal	A book rest used in Islam to place holy books on.
Bible	The Christian holy book
Quran	The Islamic holy book
font	In Churches, fonts hold special water which is used in Baptisms.
chalice	A special cup used to hold special wine during Holy

Palm crosses

On Palm Sunday many churches give out palm crosses as a reminder of Jesus coming into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday.

Prayer cap

Muslims often wear prayer caps during their five daily prayers. It can be any colour. An example of a popular prayer cap is called a topi.

Key knowledge to know and use

- Muslims can pray on prayer mats either at home or in the Mosque.
- Muslims can use prayer beads to pray.
- The church is filled with different artefacts such as a font used in Baptisms and chalices which are used during holy communions.
- Muslims have many artefacts which are important to them such as the Rehal which is a book rest for holy books.
- Special artefacts can be linked to different festivals.