At the stroke of midnight, lurking around in the dark, freezing lane, there was a bulky, mysterious monster preparing to pounce on to the unsuspecting, shy boy. Eagerly, the monster's nose sucked in the smell of yummy, soft marshmallows and leaped in to investigate. Mostly, his big, bulging eyes widened even wider, so he snatched the marshmallow of the shy boy. "Nom!" He cooed as he swallowed the marshmallow, while his bloated, wobbly belly grew even wider.

In the open, sunny forest were the whispering of the startled trees, since the lovely dappled sun was beaming peacefully. The haunting shadows of branches danced across the moss, while spiky, hazel brown acorns scattered around the peacefully, enchanted forest. The soft smell of delicate fragrances of lily's delightfully filled the air.

English - Descriptive Writing

In English, we have been learning how to write descriptively, so we have written character and setting descriptions. We have carefully selected vocabulary to make our writing engaging for the reader and have learnt to include different Y4 grammar features, such as expanded noun phrases, fronted adverbials, conjunctions and dialogue.
