

Year 5 Summer 1 Website Photos

Y5 have really enjoyed learning about coasts this half term and have produced some excellent work to show their understanding of the topic. The Y5 trip to Bempton Cliffs, near Bridlington, was a great success and really supported the children's geographical knowledge about the features of coasts and also their understanding of life cycles in Science.