

Y4 Spring 1 Website photographs

In English, we produced a series of pieces of writing based on the book Pugs of the Frozen North by Philip Reeve and Sarah McIntyre. The children have enjoyed reading this book immensely and finding out what happens to Shen, Sika and the sixty-six pugs, writing a diary entry, persuasive letter, race programme and several character descriptions. They also took part in a number of drama activities to further their understanding of the story and its characters.