The Day of Pentecost

The day that the holy spirit was received by the disciples, this enabled them to speak in tongues. This was important as the disciples could tell everyone about God and Jesus.

Key knowledge to know and use

- After Jesus' resurrection he spent time with his disciples and told them to wait in Jerusalem and then he went back to Heaven to be with God.
- Many of the disciples who received the Holy Spirit at Pentecost were baptised to show that their sins had been washed away and they were part of the Christian community. After the day of Pentecost, the disciples followed the example of the Apostles and did God's work and spread his message of forgiveness.
- Christians today follow this example and are guided and supported by the power of the Holy Spirit to carry on this work and spread the message in the UK and around the world, just as the book of Acts tells people the disciples did.
